

July 8, 1941.

Mr. Cum Posey,
324 - 13th Ave.,
Homestead, Pa.

Dear Cum:

I just returned to Newark and found your letter. What you said in it is something I could foresee long ago. Saperstein is not only going to run away with the East-West game, but he and his colleagues will soon run away with the baseball. If you have some plan by which we can stop them, I will be very glad to join in.

Is there any chance of you being in the East any time soon? I would like very much to talk to you in person.

I am sorry the Elks game was not more successful, but you know I had written you not to expect very much.

About Atlantic City, we are having quite a little difficulty lining up that Park. I understand John Henry Lloyd is trying to keep the baseball out of there, and he is getting very good co-operation from some one in authority. We are still working on it, however, please try if possible to come East. I think it would be worth the trip.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ